Special Meeting Westerly Council

To Take Action on Attorney Agard's Bill Against the Town for Services-Rifle Competition at Rumford Range-Death of Mrs. Calvin Thurber.

Clinton Phillips, who died in East Greenwich Tuesday, was a native of Westerly and was engineer of the Seventh-day mill under the management of Alexander Carmichael. He was a sergeant in old Company E, Westerly Rifles, and popular with his acquaint-ances. Mr. Phillips was 54 years of age, and is susrvived by Mrs. Phillips, formerly Miss Annie Curran, also of Westerly.

Mrs. Emily Miser, wife of Calvin Thurber, and one of Westerly's best known women, died late Tuesday afternoon in her 79th year at her home in High street. She was born in North Stonington, October 13, 1831, and was married December 13, 1868, when she made her home in Westerly, Mrs. Thurber became a member of the First Baptist church in Westerly April 23, 1848, and ever since then has been interested in church work. Besides her husband she is survived by a brother, Henry S. Miner, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Hadden of Niantic.

There is liable to be a lively contest at the republican caucus at Stonington Thursday evening, over the nomination of a selectman from the Pawcatuck district. Henry A. Stahle, who has served for the past two years, is candidate for renomination and it is said be has the hearty support of the party leaders.

His opponents, in the main mem-

His opponents, in the main mem-bers of the Working Men's club, are in favor of John Sutcliffe succeeding Selectman Stable, and are planning to go to the caucus in number sufficient to win. Mr. Stable and his friends are not new at the political game and will make a strong opposition.

Judge Spink in the municipal court of Providence has issued a decree of unfaithful administration in the peti-tion of Ellery A. Hall against C. Hadiai Hull of New London, admin-istrator of the estate of Lucy H. A.

istrator of the estate of Lucy H. A. Brown.

The administrator had not intended to allow the claim of Mr. Hall amounting to $258 against the Brown estate, but he neglected, as provided by the Rhode Island practice, to formally disallow the claim, within the time prescribed by law, and it therefore stood as approved.

The unfaithfulness was of a technical nature and was due to Mr. Hull having followed the Connecticut instead of the Rhode Island practice. The administrator is son of Hadiai A. Hull, state attorney for New London county.

There was a special meeting of the Westerly town council Wednesday evening President Clarke presiding, and Councilmen Langworthy, Burdick, Flynn, Culley and Saunders present, the only absence being Councilman Maxson, who was in New Yorki

President Clarke stated that the meeting was called at the request of Councilman Langworthy, who said that the bill against the town by Attorney Harry B. Agard for services had been Isid over on account of the absence of the councilman. As he was going away he asked for this special meeting for action. Mr. Langworthy said he did not object to paying every dellar to Mr. Agard that was just, but thought some charges excribiant, and specified some of the charges which he thought were all out of proportion.

He laid special stress on charges

He laid special stress on charges made for getting blanks in Providence and this objection by Mr. Langworthy was explained by Councilman Burdick of the police committee.

Mr. Agard also explained the several charges objected to in detail and he considered the charges reasonable and just he considered the charges reasonable and just.

Councilman Langworthy conducted a lengthy cross examination, but insisted that it was an exorbitant and unjust bill, and Mr. Agard should make a fair reduction. While there is a general retrenchment in all departments, Mr. Langworthy did not favor the payment of what he believed to be an unjust bill.

Mr. Agard stated that he had shown

Mr. Agard stated that he had shown this bill to the police committee and they were satisfied with the charges, and that the charges were ordinary Councilman Flynn was of opinion that for the amount of money expended there had been poor results. He found no fault with Mr. Agard's charges, but was of opinion that the police committee had more consultations than were necessary, for the amount of work accomplished.

Councilman Burdick justified his position as police committee, and set up the claim that the council was not back of the committee.

Councilman Flynn stated in the plainest terms that, while he was in favor of a strict enforcement of the plainest terms that, while he was in favor of a strict enforcement of the liquor law, he said the people of Westerly did not want a change from present conditions, and that Mr. Burdick knew that to be the fact. He then put pointed remarks to Mr. Burdick in relation to the suppression of the saie of liquor, and specialized Watch Hill. Mr. Burdick stated that he had stopped the sale of liquor where he knew it was being sold, and denied that he permitted liquor to be sold in one place and not in another.

Mr. Flynn sald he was not objecting to the charges of Mr. Agard, but he did not see satisfactory results for the money expended.

Mr. Burdick stated some of the difficulties experienced in prosecution of culties experienced in prosecution of liquor cases, and gave as an illustration the case the present week in the superior court, where the jury disagreed. It was easier to get a man hanged than to convict him of selling liquor.

ing liquor.

Mr. Flynn was asked if Mr. Agard would consider a reduction of the present bill were he appointed town solicitor for the balance of the present administration. He said he would, but would want time for consideration.

Mr. Langworthy asked if Mr. Agard would do the legal work for the town, including the present bill, for $600, Mr. Agard said he was willing to have bis appointment date from June 1, at $50 a month, but not to include the service done prior to that date.

Mr. Agard then made examination of the bill, and while going over the items. Mr. Burdick took occasion to compliment the work of Harry Cook, the officer at Watch Hill during the summer, stating that he was the best

1, with cases pending at that date eliminated, the sum due the attorney was $227. Still he would in fairness to himself and the town accept $350 up to the first of October, and serve the balance of the present administhe balance of the present adminis-tration to June 1, next, for $50 a month, or $750 for fourteen months. Reference was made to the $100 ap-propriation to the special use of the police committee and Chairman Bur-dick said that was evended as was dick said that was expended as was

$50 more from his private fund and Mr. Agard got no part of it. Mr. Agard got no part of it.

There was general discussion of Mr. Agard's proposition, and resulted in a motion by Mr. Burdick that the proposition be accepted, which was that Mr. Agard receive $250 to October 1, and that Mr. Agard be appointed town solicitor to June 1 next, or at the rate of $50 a month.

Postmaster York of Watch Hill was granted permission to remove a build-ing at Watch Hill, under the usual reatrictions. After a session of nearly two hours, the council adjourned.

Teams of seven men representing the organization of the Rhode Island national guard competed for the commanding officers' trophy at the Rumford range. Wednesday. The Fourth and Seventh companies of Providence made the scores, but the trophy went to the Fourth company, which made the highest score at the longest range, the shooting being at 200 and 600 yards. The Thirteenth company was third. First artillery, district staff fourth, Battery B fifth, Third company sixth. Sixteenth company seventh, and Second company eighth.
